

The second quarter 2011 Firefighter continuing education can be accessed by following the instructions below and following the link below. Members are directed to study the modules. The module are segments of the IAFF fireground survival course. All modules will be represented on the final quiz. The final quiz will be on the CFD con ed website beginning in fire safety week.

Instructions

1. Click on the link below to access the IAFF website where the con ed modules are available.
2. If you are not an IAFF online member, that is ok. On the IAFF page, click on "Non members must Click Here to create an IAFF logon."
3. Fill out the registration information. Click "submit".
4. Once your information is accepted, click on "continue"
5. Click on the link to access the fire ground survival course (FGS)
6. Once the modules are completed, access your testing page during and after fire safety week to access the quiz.

Click here to begin